

Special
Interest
Division 9

Hearing and Hearing Disorders in Childhood

December 2004

Author Index	Page 1
Subject Index	Page 4
Title Index	Page 8

Author Index

- Ackley, R. S., McDill, K., & Hellmuth, E. Goldenhar syndrome: A cause of hearing loss and other defects in children. July 2003. 10-17.
- Ad Hoc Committee on Recommended Practices for Educational Audiology, Educational Audiology Association. Recommended professional practices for educational audiology. October 1998. 1-4.
- Allen, R. Oh, the places we went: A tribute to Michael K. Wynne. April 2004. 2-3.
- Allen, R. Viewpoint on central auditory processing disorders. October 2001. 3-5.
- Anderson, K. L. Clinical approaches to educational audiology: Communicating more effectively with the public schools. August 1997. 17-18.
- Anderson, K. L., & Crowley, D. J. When listening carefully is not enough: 12 steps to approaching speech-language pathology services for the child who is hard-of-hearing. October 2002. 33-36.
- Auditory Verbal International. Suggested protocol for audiological and hearing aid evaluation. November 1993. 9-10.
- Auslander, M. Educational audiology in a rural setting. December 1996. 4-6.
- Battey, Jr., J. F. Hereditary hearing impairment in children: An explosion of new knowledge emerging from the human genome project and mouse models. July 2001. 2-7.
- Bellis, T. J. Considerations in diagnosing auditory processing disorders in school-aged children. October 2002. 3-8.
- Beverly-Ducker, K. Multicultural issues in audiology. May 2003. 12-15.
- Blair, J. C. Effective methods for communicating with classroom teachers. October 2002. 37-40.
- Bradham, T. Efficacy issues in the evaluation and management of central auditory processing disorders. October 2001. 6-11.
- Champlin, C. A. Estimating hearing thresholds in infants using auditory steady-state responses. April 2002. 9-11.
- Chasin, M., & Wade, P. Bone anchored hearing aids with unilateral hearing losses. November 1993. 2-4.
- Chute, P. M., & Buhler, H. C. Therapeutic issues and adolescent cochlear implant recipients. October 2004. 16-20.
- Cone-Wesson, B. OAEs for neonatal hearing screening or all I ever needed to know I learned in the newborn nursery. March 1996. 8-12.
- Cook, G. R. An overview of the occupational hearing conservation programs: The audiologist's role, audiologic/medical referrals, and expectations concerning referrals. April 2004. 23-26.
- Crandell, C. C. Normal hearing in the classroom: Is it enough? September 1996. 3-9.
- Crandell, C. C. Soundfield FM amplification: Advantages and potential limitations. August 1997. 3-9.
- Diehl, S. Email list news: Cognitive referencing. September 1999. 23-27.
- Donaghy, K. Evaluating and monitoring FM use in educational settings. September 1996. 9-12.
- Duffy, D. An implant for Bridget. May 1998. 7.
- English, K. Teens, hearing loss, and self-acceptance: We've got to talk about it! October 2004. 2-4.
- English, K. Working with parents of school-aged children: Staying in step while keeping a step ahead. August 2000. 17-20.
- Eiten, L. R. Promoting clinical excellence: When the QI process doesn't go your way. September 1999. 21-23.
- Eiten, L. R. QI corner. September 1999. 21.
- Elfenbein, J. L. Genetics of hearing loss: Contributions of mitochondrial DNA. April 2002. 2-5.
- Emanuel, D. C. Clinical applications of evoked otoacoustic emissions. November 1997. 5-7.

- Erlandsson, S. I., & Olsen, S. E. The effects of noise, attitudes, and risk-taking on children and young adults. April 2004. 9-13.
- Erler, S. F. Working with children who have cochlear implants. October 2002. 19-24.
- Ernst, M. M. Comments invited regarding application for ASHA specialty recognition of auditory-verbal; communication. May 1998. 12.
- Ertmer, D. J. Auditory training and school-age children with cochlear implants: Addressing speech perception and oral communication needs. October 2002. 29-32.
- Ferre, J. M. Interpreting central auditory test results: Implications for management. October 2002. 9-14.
- Flamme, G. Hearing loss risk factors and strategies in rural areas. April 2004. 18-21.
- Folmer, R. L. Hearing conservation education for children. October 2002. 48-52.
- Galster, J.A. Online resources for the topics of auditory processing and attention deficit disorders. October 2001. 13-14.
- Gasch, J. W., Glatcke, T. J. Learning from our patients: Outreach with children from Mexico. July 2003. 17-18.
- Geers, A. E., & Moog, M. S. The sensory aids study at Central Institute for the Deaf. August 1995. 7-8.
- Geffner, D. CAPD and school age children: Everything old is new again. October 2002. 17-19.
- Granger, M. M. Let's hear it for ears. October 2002. 46-48.
- Grugan, P. Why a cochlear implant? ... Why not? May 1998. 7-8.
- Jorgan, J. A. Bosnia speech and hearing project. May 2003. 6-8.
- Henry, P., & Jones, C. Selecting and implementing FM solutions. April 2004. 16-18.
- Hoppe, K. Cochlear implants: One family's decision for their deaf child. May 1998. 9-10.
- Hornsby, B. W. Y. Amplification issues and considerations in the teenage population. October 2004. 8-12.
- Hutchison, J., Ernst, M., & Sloan, M. The power of perception: Two views of deafness. January 1995. 5-6.
- Jacobson, J. ABR in perspective: A valid technique in newborn universal hearing detection. November 1995. 3-6.
- Jerger, S. Rethinking global behavioral tests of central auditory processing. April 1997. 3-6.
- Kelley, P. M., Rogers, R., & Cohn, E. The genetics of auditory neuropathy. July 2002. 14-18.
- Koley, M. A. The importance of establishing a protocol for diagnosis of auditory neuropathy. July 2002. 19-24.
- Kreisman, B. M., Crandell, C. C., & Smaldino, J. J. Soundfield and personal FM: Technologies to assist children with normal hearing in the classroom. May 2003. 17-20.
- Kretschmer, L. W. Guest editor's message (auditory integration training). March 1996. 1-4.
- Kuster, J. M. Internet materials for professionals serving children with hearing loss. March 2001. 3-6.
- Langman, A. W., & Langman, I. B. Determining work related noise-induced hearing loss. April 2004. 21-22.
- LeBlanc, B. M. Motivating the adolescent with a hearing loss to enjoy communicative skills training. October 2004. 12-16.
- Lewis, D. E. Coupling FM systems to cochlear implants: Information from FM manufacturers. May 1998. 10-11.
- Lewis, D. E. Coupling FM systems to cochlear implants: Information from FM manufacturers. October 1998. 6.
- Lewis, D. E. Internet sites of interest. October 1998. 5.
- Lewis, D. E. Recent developments in FM-system technology for classroom use. June 1994. 2-6.
- Lewis, D. E. FM amplification systems: What's new? September 1996. 12-13.
- Lewis, D. E. Cochlear implant internet sites. May 1998. 11.
- Lieberth, A. K. Computer resources for children with hearing impairments. March 2001. 9-11.
- Liebrich, D. A. Oops, I thought I was an audiologist. May 2003. 15-17.
- Lonsbury-Martin, B. L. Biological basis of noise-induced hearing loss. April 2004. 4-9.
- Lucker, J. R., Geffner, D., & Gordon, A. Three years experience with auditory integration training. March 1996. 4-6.
- Luterman, D. Counseling and the field of communication disorders. November 1997. 2-3.
- Martin, W. H., Griest, S. E., & Howarth, L. C. Innovations in preventing noise-induced hearing loss and tinnitus. April 2004. 13-15.
- Marttila, J. Still forgotten after all these years? October 2002. 41-42.
- McCleary, E., Veazey, N. G., & Harker, L. Case study: Cochlear implantation of an older child. May 1998. 3-6.
- Meyer, T. A. Aural atresia: A primer for the hearing professional. April 2002. 12-15.
- Mullen, L. M., & Ryan, A. F. Transgenic mutations affecting the inner ear. July 2001. 7-16.
- Naeve-Velguth, S., & Heintzelman, A.T. Counseling families with hearing loss: Infants and toddlers. August 2000. 10-16.
- National Research Register for Hereditary Hearing Loss. What is branchial oto renal (BOR) syndrome? June 1994. 9.
- National Research Register for Hereditary Hearing Loss. Neurofibromatosis and hearing loss. January 1995. 2-4.
- Nittrouer, S. Chronic ome hinders normal language development. September 1999. 17-20.
- Palmer, C. V. Documenting the impact of assistive listening technology in the classroom. August 1997. 9-14.

- Paradise, J. L. Developmental outcomes in relation to early-life otitis media: General considerations and the Pittsburgh study. September 1999. 8-16.
- Paxton, M. W., & Clark-Lewis, S. Use of pediatric outcome measures in a university audiology training program. July 2003. 6-8.
- Pimentel, V. Remembering Mike Wynne. April 2004. 3.
- Pimentel, V. Welcoming and celebrating new voices in audiology and speech-language pathology: A critical look at university programs and the treatment of culturally and linguistically diverse students. May 2003. 3-5.
- Pratt, S. Current status and potential changes in the early behavioral intervention with infants with hearing loss. April 2002. 5-8.
- Pratt, S. R. Providing counseling and instructions to parents of infants and children with hearing loss: A consideration of need. August 2000. 2-10.
- Quenin, C. S. Counseling parents of deaf and hard-of-hearing children: Communication options. November 1997. 7-9.
- Radaszewski-Byrne, M. Deaf education initiative: Background, update, and commentary. May 1993. 4-6.
- Rhoades, E. A. Learning to listen while coming of age. October 2004. 4-8.
- Roberts, J. E., & Gravel, J. Otitis media in young children—Assessment and management issues. September 1999. 2-7.
- Roesch, K. Pediatric cochlear implant update and the value of a team approach. October 2002. 24-28.
- Rose, K., Hood, L. J., & Berlin, C. I. Overview of the evolution of auditory neuropathy—Its diagnosis and management. July 2002. 3-11.
- Rosenberg, G. G. It's the rage of the 1990s! FM soundfield classroom amplification. August 1997. 15-17.
- Ross-Swain, D. Assessing information processing skills in children and adults following TBI or with learning disabilities. October 2001. 11-13.
- Sabo, D. L. Message from the coordinator, 1998-2000. March 2001. 1.
- Sabo, D. L. Message from the coordinator. August 2000. 1.
- Scott, T. M. Case study and audiological management of a child with treacher collins syndrome. April 2002. 15-17.
- Scott, T. M. Genetic factors and hearing: An annotated bibliography. July 2001. 19-22.
- Seaton, J. B. Owning a hearing loss: Arming students with information and support. October 2002. 43-46.
- Simmons, J., & Beauchaine, K. Amplification options in the treatment of auditory neuropathy. July 2002. 24-27.
- Solomon, N. Our experience with auditory neuropathy: How professionals and parents can help each other. July 2002. 30-32.
- Thibodeau, L. M., & Schafer, E. Issues to consider regarding use of FM systems with infants with hearing loss. April 2002. 18-21.
- Thomas, J., & Almario, G. Hearing conservation in the U.S. Air Force. April 2004. 26-28.
- Vaden, K. A., & Collison, E. A. Considering outcomes in cochlear implantation. July 2003. 2-5.
- Web links related to hearing conservation. April 2004. 29-30.
- Withnell, R. H., & Lilly, D. J. Outer hair cells, cochlear mechanical amplification, otoacoustic emissions, and the cochlear microphonic. July 2002. 11-14.
- Wynne, M. K. Curing those CAPD treatment efficacy blues. October 2002. 15-17.
- Wynne, M. K. Another brick in the wall: Individuals in the context of family and community. May 2003. 9-11.
- Wynne, M. K. Exploring shareware and public domain software for speech-language pathologists and audiologists. March 2001.12-14.
- Wynne, M. K. It's all about the questions: Clinical decision making in pediatric audiology. July 2003. 8-10.
- Wynne, M. K. Message from the coordinator. March 2001.1-2.
- Wynne, M. K. Message from the coordinator. July 2001. 1.
- Wynne, M. K. Message from the coordinator. October 2001. 1.
- Wynne, M. K. Message from the coordinator. July 2002. 1-2.
- Wynne, M. K. Message from the coordinator. October 2002. 1-2.
- Wynne, M. K., Champlin, C. A., & Elfenbein, J. L. Message from the coordinator. April 2002. 1-2.
- Ying, E. Communication management of the child with auditory neuropathy. July 2002. 27-30.

Subject Index

Nature of Hearing and Its Disorders

Auditory and Other Otic Pathologies

Alport syndrome. National Research Register for Hereditary Hearing Loss. June 1994. 8-9.

Auditory neuropathy in children. Sininger, Y. S. April 1997. 6-11.

Aural atresia: A primer for the hearing professional. Meyer, T. A. April 2002. 12-15.

Biological basis of noise-induced hearing loss. Lonsbury-Martin, B. L. April 2004. 4-9.

Case study and audiological management of a child with treacher collins syndrome. Scott, T. M. April 2002. 15-17.

Chronic ome hinders normal language development. Nittrouer, S. September 1999. 17-20.

Determining work related noise-induced hearing loss. Langman, A. W., & Langman, I. B. April 2004. 21-22.

Developmental outcomes in relation to early-life otitis media: General considerations and the Pittsburgh study. Paradise, J. L. September 1999. 8-16.

The effects of noise, attitudes, and risk-taking on children and young adults. Erlandsson, S. I., & Olsen S. E. April 2004. 9-13.

Genetic evaluation and counseling for hearing loss. National Research Register for Hereditary Hearing Loss. November 1993. 7-8.

Goldenhar syndrome: A cause of hearing loss and other defects in children. Ackley, R. S., McDill, K., & Hellmuth, E. July 2003. 10-17.

Innovations in preventing noise-induced hearing loss and tinnitus. Martin, W. H., Griest, S. E., & Howarth, L. C. April 2004. 13-15.

Neurofibromatosis and hearing loss. National Research Register for Hereditary Hearing Loss. January 1995. 2-4.

Otitis media in young children—
Assessment and management issues. Roberts, J. E., & Gravel, J. September 1999. 2-7.

An overview of the occupational hearing conservation programs: The audiologist's role, audiologic/medical referrals, and expectations concerning referrals. Cook, G. R. April 2004. 23-26.

Web links related to hearing conservation. April 2004. 29-30.

What is branchial oto renal (BOR) syndrome? National Research Register for Hereditary Hearing Loss. June 1994. 9.

Hearing Loss and Deafness

Biological basis of noise-induced hearing loss. Lonsbury-Martin, B. L. April 2004. 4-9.

Determining work related noise-induced hearing loss. Langman, A. W., & Langman, I. B. April 2004. 21-22.

The effects of noise, attitudes, and risk-taking on children and young adults. Erlandsson, S. I., & Olsen S. E. April 2004. 9-13.

Genetic factors and hearing: An annotated bibliography. Scott, T. M. July 2001. 19-22.

The genetics of auditory neuropathy. Kelley, P. M., Rogers, R., & Cohn, E. July 2002. 14-18.

Genetics of hearing loss: Contributions of mitochondrial DNA. Elfenbein, J. L. April 2002. 2-5.

Hearing loss risk factors and strategies in rural areas. Flamme, G. April 2004. 18-21.

Hereditary hearing impairment in children: An explosion of new knowledge emerging from the human genome project and mouse models. Battey, Jr., J. F. July 2001. 2-7.

Innovations in preventing noise-induced hearing loss and tinnitus. Martin, W. H., Griest, S. E., & Howarth, L. C. April 2004. 13-15.

Learning to listen while coming of age. Rhoades, E. A. October 2004. 4-8.

Message from the coordinator. Wynne, M.K. July 2001. 1.

Message from the coordinator. Wynne, M. K. July 2002. 1-2.

Message from the coordinator. Wynne, M. K., Champlin, C. A., & Elfenbein, J. L. April 2002. 1-2.

Outer hair cells, cochlear mechanical amplification, otoacoustic emissions, and the cochlear microphonic. Withnell, R. H., & Lilly, D. J. July 2002. 11-14.

The power of perception: Two views of deafness. Hutchison, J., Ernst, M., & Sloan, M. January 1995. 5-6.

Therapeutic issues and adolescent cochlear implant recipients. Chute, P.M., & Buhler, H.C. October 2004. 16-20.

Transgenic mutations affecting the inner ear. Mullen, L. M., & Ryan, A. F. July 2001. 7-16.

Assessment of Hearing Screening

ABR in perspective: A valid technique in newborn universal hearing detection. Jacobson, J. November 1995. 3-6.

Diagnostic Audiology—General

Assessing information processing skills in children and adults following TBI or with learning disabilities. Ross-Swain, D. October 2001. 11-13

Bosnia speech and hearing project. Jorgan, J. A. May 2003. 6-8.

Determining work related noise-induced hearing loss. Langman, A. W., & Langman, I. B. April 2004. 21-22.

Efficacy issues in the evaluation and management of central auditory processing disorders. Bradham, T. October 2001. 6-11.

Hearing conservation in the U.S. Air Force. Thomas, J., & Almario, G. April 2004. 26-28.

The importance of establishing a protocol for diagnosis of auditory neuropathy. Koley, M. A. July 2002. 19-24.

It's all about the questions: Clinical decision making in pediatric audiology. Wynne, M. K. July 2003. 8-10.

- Outreach audiology. Seitz, A. June 1994. 6-8.
- Overview of the evolution of auditory neuropathy—Its diagnosis and management. Rose, K., Hood, L. J., & Berlin, C. I. July 2002. 3-11.
- An overview of the occupational hearing conservation programs: The audiologist's role, audiologic/medical referrals, and expectations concerning referrals. Cook, G. R. April 2004. 23-26.
- Viewpoint on central auditory processing disorders. Allen, R. October 2001. 3-5.
- Working with parents of school-aged children: Staying in step while keeping a step ahead. English, K. August 2000. 17-20.

Specific Diagnostic Techniques and Approaches

- CAPD and school age children: Everything old is new again. Geffner, D. October 2002. 17-19.
- Considerations in diagnosing auditory processing disorders in school-aged children. October 2002. Bellis, T. J. 3-8.
- Estimating hearing thresholds in infants using auditory steady-state responses. Champlin, C. A. April 2002. 9-11.
- Goldenhar syndrome: A cause of hearing loss and other defects in children. Ackley, R. S., McDill, K., & Hellmuth, E. July 2003. 10-17.
- Rethinking global behavioral tests of central auditory processing. Jerger, S. April 1997. 3-6.
- Clinical applications of evoked otoacoustic emissions. Emanuel, D. C. November 1997. 5-7.
- OAEs for neonatal hearing screening or all I ever needed to know I learned in the newborn nursery. Cone-Wesson, B. March 1996. 8-12.

Pediatrics

- Assessment & management of babies with hearing loss & their families. Seitz, A. December 1996. 1-4.
- Identification of hearing loss in newborns. Sininger, Y. S. November 1995. 1-3.

- National institutes of health consensus development conference statement. National Institutes of Health. May 1993. 7-8.

Intervention

Habilitation, Rehabilitation, and Education

- Amplification issues and considerations in the teenage population. Hornsby, B. W. Y. October 2004. 8-12.
- Another brick in the wall: Individuals in the context of family and community. Wynne, M. K. May 2003. 9-11.
- Auditory training and school-age children with cochlear implants: Addressing speech perception and oral communication needs. Ertmer, D. J. October 2002. 29-32.
- Bosnia speech and hearing project. Jorgan, J. A. May 2003. 6-8.
- The child is the focus, not the approach. Ross, M. January 1995. 1-2.
- Clinical approaches to educational audiology: Communicating more effectively with the public schools. Anderson, K. L. August 1997. 17-18.
- Communication management of the child with auditory neuropathy. Ying, E. July 2002. 27-30.
- Computer resources for children with hearing impairments. Lieberth, A. K. March 2001. 9-11.
- Considering outcomes in cochlear implantation. Vaden, K. A., & Collison, E. A. July 2003. 2-5.
- A controlled study of auditory integration training efficacy. Zollweg, W., Vance, V., & Palm, D. March 1996. 6-8.
- Counseling families with hearing loss: Infants and toddlers. Naeve-Velguth, S., & Heintzelman, A. T. August 2000. 10-16.
- Counseling parents of deaf and hard-of-hearing children: Communication options. Quenin, C. S. November 1997. 7-9.

- Counseling persons with hearing impairment revisited. Mendel, L. L. November 1997. 9-11.
- Curing those CAPD treatment efficacy blues. Wynne, M. K. October 2002. 15-17.
- Current status and potential changes in the early behavioral intervention with infants with hearing loss. Pratt, S. April 2002. 5-8.
- Developing partnerships with the families of children who have hearing impairments. McNaughton, D. B. November 1997. 3-5.
- Documenting the impact of assistive listening technology in the classroom. Palmer, C. V. August 1997. 9-14.
- Educational audiology in a rural setting. Auslander, M. December 1996. 4-6.
- Effective methods for communicating with classroom teachers. Blair, J. C. October 2002. 37-40.
- The effects of noise, attitudes, and risk-taking on children and young adults. Erlandsson, S. I., & Olsen, S. E. April 2004. 9-13.
- Exploring shareware and public domain software for Speech-Language Pathologists and Audiologists. Wynne, M. K. March 2001. 12-14.
- Hearing conservation education for children. Folmer, R. L. October 2002. 48-52.
- Hearing conservation in the U.S. Air Force. Thomas, J., & Almario, G. April 2004. 26-28.
- Hearing loss risk factors and strategies in rural areas. Flamme, G. April 2004. 18-21.
- Innovations in preventing noise-induced hearing loss and tinnitus. Martin, W. H., Griest, S. E., & Howarth, L. C. April 2004. 13-15.
- Internet materials for professionals serving children with hearing loss. Kuster, J. M. March 2001. 3-6.
- Interpreting central auditory test results: Implications for management. Ferre, J. M. October 2002. 9-14.

- It's the rage of the 1990s! FM soundfield classroom amplification. Rosenberg, G. G. August 1997. 15-17.
- Learning from our patients: Outreach with children from Mexico. Gasch, J. W., Glatke, T. J. July 2003. 17-18.
- Learning to listen while coming of age. Rhoades, E. A. October 2004. 4-8.
- Let's hear it for ears. Granger, M. M. October 2002. 46-48.
- Message from the coordinator. Wynne, M. K. March 2001. 1-2.
- Message from the coordinator. Wynne, M. K. October 2001. 1.
- Message from the coordinator. Wynne, M. K. October 2002. 1-2
- Message from the coordinator. Sabo, D. L. August 2000. 1.
- Message from the coordinator, 1998-2000. Sabo, D. L. March 2001. 1.
- Motivating the adolescent with a hearing loss to enjoy communicative skills training. LeBlanc, B. M. October 2004. 12-16.
- Online resources for the topics of auditory processing and attention deficit disorders. Galster, J. A. October 2001. 13-14.
- Oops, I thought I was an audiologist. Liebrich, D. A. May 2003. 15-17.
- Our experience with auditory neuropathy: How professionals and parents can help each other. Solomon, N. July 2002. 30-32.
- An overview of the occupational hearing conservation programs: The audiologist's role, audiologic/medical referrals, and expectations concerning referrals. Cook, G. R. April 2004. 23-26.
- Owning a hearing loss: Arming students with information and support. Seaton, J. B. October 2002. 43-46.
- Providing counseling and instructions to parents of infants and children with hearing loss: A consideration of need. Pratt, S. R. August 2000. 2-10.
- Selecting and implementing FM solutions. Henry, P., & Jones, C. April 2004. 16-18.
- Soundfield FM amplification: Advantages and potential limitations. Crandell, C. C. August 1997. 3-9.
- Sound-field and personal FM: Technologies to assist children with normal hearing in the classroom. Kreisman, B. M., Crandell, C. C., & Smaldino, J. J. May 2003. 17-20.
- Still forgotten after all these years? Marttila, J. October 2002. 41-42.
- Teens, hearing loss, and self-acceptance: We've got to talk about it! English, K. October 2004. 2-4.
- Therapeutic issues and adolescent cochlear implant recipients. Chute, P.M., & Buhler, H.C. October 2004. 16-20.
- Three years experience with auditory integration training. Lucker, J. R., Geffner, D., & Gordon, A. March 1996. 4-6.
- Use of pediatric outcome measures in a university audiology training program. Paxton, M. W., & Clark-Lewis, S. July 2003. 6-8.
- Web links related to hearing conservation. April 2004. 29-30.
- When listening carefully is not enough: 12 steps to approaching speech language pathology services for the child who is hard-of-hearing. Anderson, K. L., & Crowley, D. J. October 2002. 33-36.
- Working with children who have cochlear implants. Erler, S. F. October 2002. 19-24.
- Hearing Aids and Other Prostheses
- Amplification issues and considerations in the teenage population. Hornsby, B. W. Y. October 2004. 8-12.
- Amplification options in the treatment of auditory neuropathy. Simmons, J., & Beauchaine, K. July 2002. 24-27.
- Bone anchored hearing aids with unilateral hearing losses. Chasin, M., & Wade, P. November 1993. 2-4.
- Bosnia speech and hearing project. Jorgan, J. A. May 2003. 6-8.
- Case study: Cochlear implantation of an older child. McCleary, E., Veazey, N. G., & Harker, L. May 1998. 3-6.
- Cochlear implant Internet sites. Lewis, D. E. May 1998. 11.
- Cochlear implants: One family's decision for their deaf child. Hoppe, K. May 1998. 9-10.
- Coupling FM systems to cochlear implants: Information from FM manufacturers. Lewis, D. E. May 1998. 10-11.
- Coupling FM systems to cochlear implants: Information from FM manufacturers. Lewis, D. E. October 1998. 6.
- Developmental outcomes in relation to early-life otitis media: General considerations and the Pittsburgh study. Paradise, J. L. September 1999. 8-16.
- Email list news: Cognitive referencing. Diehl, S. September 1999. 23-27.
- Evaluating and monitoring FM use in educational settings. Donaghy, K. September 1996. 9-12.
- FM amplification systems: What's new? Lewis, D. E. September 1996. 12-13.
- Goldenhar syndrome: A cause of hearing loss and other defects in children. Ackley, R. S., McDill, K., & Hellmuth, E. July 2003. 10-17.
- Guest editor's message (auditory integration training). Kretschmer, L. W. March 1996. 1-4.
- An implant for Bridget. Duffy, D. May 1998. 7.
- Issues to consider regarding use of FM systems with infants with hearing loss. Thibodeau, L. M., & Schafer, E. April 2002. 18-21.
- Learning to listen while coming of age. Rhoades, E. A. October 2004. 4-8.
- Maximizing the potential benefits from FM system technology. Medwetsky, L. November 1993. 4-6.
- NIH consensus development conference statement on cochlear implants in adults and children. National Institutes of Health. August 1995. 2-6.

- Normal hearing in the classroom: Is it enough? Crandell, C. C. September 1996. 3-9.
- Otitis media in young children— Assessment and management issues. Roberts, J. E., & Gravel, J. September 1999. 2-7.
- Our decision. West, M. May 1998. 8-9.
- Pediatric cochlear implant update and the value of a team approach. Roesch, K. October 2002. 24-28.
- Recent developments in FM-system technology for classroom use. Lewis, D. E. June 1994. 2-6.
- Selecting and implementing FM solutions. Henry, P., & Jones, C. April 2004. 16-18.
- The sensory aids study at Central Institute for the Deaf. Geers, A. E., & Moog, M. S. August 1995. 7-8.
- Sound-field and personal FM: Technologies to assist children with normal hearing in the classroom. Kreisman, B. M., Crandell, C. C., & Smaldino, J. J. May 2003. 17-20.
- Suggested protocol for audiological and hearing aid evaluation. Auditory Verbal International. November 1993. 9-10.
- Therapeutic issues and adolescent cochlear implant recipients. Chute, P. M., & Buhler, H. C. October 2004. 16-20.
- Why a cochlear implant? ... Why not? Grugan, P. May 1998. 7-8.

Professional and General Scientific Issues

Professional Affairs

Professional Standards and Ethics Professional Standards and Ethics

- Comments invited regarding application for ASHA specialty recognition of auditory-verbal communication. Ernst, M. M. May 1998. 12.
- Deaf education initiative: Background, update, and commentary. Radaszewski-Byrne, M. May 1993. 4-6.

- Multicultural issues in audiology. Beverly-Ducker, K. May 2003. 12-15.
- Recommended professional practices for educational audiology. Ad hoc committee on recommended practices for educational audiology, Educational Audiology Association. October 1998. 1-4.

Service Provision Models and Problems

- Email list news: Cognitive referencing. Diehl, S. September 1999. 23-27.
- Promoting clinical excellence: When the QI process doesn't go your way. Eiten, L. R. September 1999. 21-23.
- QI corner. Eiten, L. R. September 1999. 21.

Interdisciplinary Concerns

- Physician response to childhood hearing impairment. VOICE for Hearing Impaired Children. May 1993. 2-4.

Professional Training

Education and Continuing Education Education and Continuing Education

- Internet sites of interest. Lewis, D. E. October 1998. 5.
- Welcoming and celebrating new voices in audiology and speech-language pathology: A critical look at university programs and the treatment of culturally and linguistically diverse students. Pimentel, V. May 2003. 3-5.

Clinical Supervision

- Summary report from the executive board subcommittee on issues in clinical supervision. Ulrich, S. R. December 1996. 7-9.

Counseling

- Counseling and the field of communication disorders. Luteran, D. November 1997. 2-3.
- Oops, I thought I was an audiologist. Liebrich, D. A. May 2003. 15-17.

Title Index

- ABR in perspective: A valid technique in newborn universal hearing detection. Jacobson, J. November 1995. 3-6.
- Alport syndrome. National Research Register for Hereditary Hearing Loss. June 1994. 8-9.
- Amplification issues and considerations in the teenage population. Hornsby, B. W. Y. October 2004. 8-12.
- Amplification options in the treatment of auditory neuropathy. Simmons, J., & Beauchaine, K. July 2002. 24-27.
- Another brick in the wall: Individuals in the context of family and community. Wynne, M. K. May 2003. 9-11.
- Assessing information processing skills in children and adults following TBI or with learning disabilities. Ross-Swain, D. October 2001. 11-13.
- Assessment & management of babies with hearing loss & their families. Seitz, A. December 1996. 1-4.
- Auditory neuropathy in children. Sininger, Y. S. April 1997. 6-11.
- Auditory training and school-age children with cochlear implants: Addressing speech perception and oral communication needs. Ertmer, D. J. October 2002. 29-32.
- Aural atresia: A primer for the hearing professional. Meyer, T. A. April 2002. 12-15.
- Biological basis of noise-induced hearing loss. Lonsbury-Martin, B. L. April 2004. 4-9.
- Bone anchored hearing aids with unilateral hearing losses. Chasin, M., & Wade, P. November 1993. 2-4.
- Bosnia speech and hearing project. Jorgan, J. A. May 2003. 6-8.
- CAPD and school age children: Everything old is new again. Geffner, D. October 2002. 17-19.
- Case study and audiological management of a child with treacher collins syndrome. Scott, T. M. April 2002. 15-17.
- Case study: Cochlear implantation of an older child. McCleary, E., Veazey, N. G., & Harker, L. May 1998. 3-6.

- The child is the focus, not the approach. Ross, M. January 1995. 1-2.
- Chronic otitis media hinders normal language development. Nittrouer, S. September 1999. 17-20.
- Clinical applications of evoked otoacoustic emissions. Emanuel, D. C. November 1997. 5-7.
- Clinical approaches to educational audiology: Communicating more effectively with the public schools. Anderson, K. L. August 1997. 17-18.
- Cochlear implant Internet sites. Lewis, D. E. May 1998. 11.
- Cochlear implants: One family's decision for their deaf child. Hoppe, K. May 1998. 9-10.
- Comments invited regarding application for ASHA specialty recognition of auditory-verbal communication. Ernst, M. M. May 1998. 12.
- Communication management of the child with auditory neuropathy. Ying, E. July 2002. 27-30.
- Computer resources for children with hearing impairments. Lieberth, A. K. March 2001. 9-11.
- Considerations in diagnosing auditory processing disorders in school-aged children. October 2002. Bellis, T. J. 3-8.
- Considering outcomes in cochlear implantation. Vaden, K. A., & Collison, E. A. July 2003. 2-5.
- A controlled study of auditory integration training efficacy. Zollweg, W., Vance, V., & Palm, D. March 1996. 6-8.
- Counseling and the field of communication disorders. Luterman, D. November 1997. 2-3.
- Counseling families with children with hearing loss: Infants and toddlers. Naeve-Velguth, S., & Heintzelman, A. T. August 2000. 10-16.
- Counseling parents of deaf and hard-of-hearing children: Communication options. Quenin, C. S. November 1997. 7-9.
- Counseling persons with hearing impairment revisited. Mendel, L. L. November 1997. 9-11.
- Coupling FM systems to cochlear implants: Information from FM manufacturers. Lewis, D. E. May 1998. 10-11.
- Coupling FM systems to cochlear implants: Information from FM manufacturers. Lewis, D. E. October 1998. 6.
- Curing those CAPD treatment efficacy blues. Wynne, M. K. October 2002. 15-17.
- Current status and potential changes in the early behavioral intervention with infants with hearing loss. Pratt, S. April 2002. 5-8.
- Deaf education initiative: Background, update, and commentary. Radaszewski-Byrne, M. May 1993. 4-6.
- Determining work related noise-induced hearing loss. Langman, A. W., & Langman, I. B. April 2004. 21-22.
- Developing partnerships with the families of children who have hearing impairments. McNaughton, D. B. November 1997. 3-5.
- Developmental outcomes in relation to early-life otitis media: General considerations and the Pittsburgh study. Paradise, J. L. September 1999. 8-16.
- Documenting the impact of assistive listening technology in the classroom. Palmer, C. V. August 1997. 9-14.
- Educational audiology in a rural setting. Auslander, M. December 1996. 4-6.
- Effective methods for communicating with classroom teachers. Blair, J. C. October 2002. 37-40.
- The effects of noise, attitudes, and risk-taking on children and young adults. Erlandsson, S. I., & Olsen S. E. April 2004. 9-13.
- Efficacy issues in the evaluation and management of central auditory processing disorders. Bradham, T. October 2001. 6-11.
- Email list news: Cognitive referencing. Diehl, S. September 1999. 23-27.
- Estimating hearing thresholds in infants using auditory steady-state responses. Champlin, C. A. April 2002. 9-11.
- Evaluating and monitoring FM use in educational settings. Donaghy, K. September 1996. 9-12.
- Exploring shareware and public domain software for speech-language pathologists and audiologists. Wynne, M. K. March 2001. 12-14.
- FM amplification systems: What's new? Lewis, D. E. September 1996. 12-13.
- Genetic factors and hearing: An annotated bibliography. Scott, T. M. July 2001. 19-22.
- Genetic evaluation and counseling for hearing loss. National Research Register for Hereditary Hearing Loss. November 1993. 7-8.
- The genetics of auditory neuropathy. Kelley, P. M., Rogers, R., & Cohn, E. July 2002. 14-18.
- Genetics of hearing loss: Contributions of mitochondrial DNA. Elfenbein, J. L. April 2002. 2-5.
- Goldenhar syndrome: A cause of hearing loss and other defects in children. Ackley, R. S., McDill, K., & Hellmuth, E. July 2003. 10-17.
- Guest editor's message (auditory integration training). Kretschmer, L. W. March 1996. 1-4.
- Hearing conservation education for children. Folmer, R. L. October 2002. 48-52.
- Hearing conservation in the U.S. Air Force. Thomas, J., & Almarino, G. April 2004. 26-28.
- Hearing loss risk factors and strategies in rural areas. Flamme, G. April 2004. 18-21.
- Hereditary hearing impairment in children: An explosion of new knowledge emerging from the human genome project and mouse models. Battey, Jr., J. F. July 2001. 2-7.
- Identification of hearing loss in newborns. Sininger, Y. S. November 1995. 1-3.
- An implant for Bridget. Duffy, D. May 1998. 7.
- The importance of establishing a protocol for diagnosis of auditory neuropathy. Koley, M. A. July 2002. 19-24.

- Innovations in preventing noise-induced hearing loss and tinnitus. Martin, W. H., Griest, S. E., & Howarth, L. C. April 2004. 13-15.
- Internet materials for professionals serving children with hearing loss. Kuster, J. M. March 2001. 3-6
- Internet sites of interest. Lewis, D. E. October 1998. 5.
- Interpreting central auditory test results: Implications for management. Ferre, J. M. October 2002. 9-14.
- Issues to consider regarding use of FM systems with infants with hearing loss. Thibodeau, L. M., & Schafer, E. April 2002. 18-21.
- It's all about the questions: Clinical decision making in pediatric audiology. Wynne, M. K. July 2003. 8-10.
- It's the rage of the 1990s! FM soundfield classroom amplification. Rosenberg, G. G. August 1997. 15-17.
- Learning to listen while coming of age. Rhoades, E. A. October 2004. 4-8.
- Let's hear it for ears. Granger, M. M. October 2002. 46-48.
- Learning from our patients: Outreach with children from Mexico. Gasch, J. W., Glatke, T. J. July 2003. 17-18.
- Maximizing the potential benefits from FM system technology. Medwetsky, L. November 1993. 4-6.
- Message from the coordinator. Wynne, M. K. October 2001. 1.
- Message from the coordinator. Wynne, M. K. July 2001. 1.
- Message from the coordinator. Wynne, M. K. March 2001. 1-2.
- Message from the coordinator. Wynne, M. K. July 2002. 1-2.
- Message from the coordinator. Wynne, M. K. October 2002. 1-2
- Message from the coordinator. Wynne, M. K., Champlin, C. A., & Elfenbein, J. L. April 2002. 1-2.
- Message from the coordinator. Sabo, D. L. August 2000. 1-2.
- Message from the coordinator. 1998-2000. Sabo, D. L. March 2001. 1.
- Motivating the adolescent with a hearing loss to enjoy communicative skills training. LeBlanc, B. M. October 2004. 12-16
- Multicultural issues in audiology. Beverly-Ducker, K. May 2003. 12-15.
- National institutes of health consensus development conference statement. National Institutes of Health. May 1993. 7-8.
- Neurofibromatosis and hearing loss. National Research Register for Hereditary Hearing Loss. January 1995. 2-4.
- NIH consensus development conference statement on cochlear implants in adults and children. National Institutes of Health. August 1995. 2-6.
- Normal hearing in the classroom: Is it enough? Crandell, C. C. September 1996. 3-9.
- OAEs for neonatal hearing screening or all I ever needed to know I learned in the newborn nursery. Cone-Wesson, B. March 1996. 8-12.
- Oh, the places we went: A tribute to Michael K. Wynne. Allen, R. April 2004. 2-3.
- Online resources for the topics of auditory processing and attention deficit disorders. Galster, J. A. October 2001. 13-14.
- Oops, I thought I was an audiologist. Liebrich, D. A. May 2003. 15-17.
- Otitis media in young children—Assessment and management issues. Roberts, J. E., & Gravel, J. September 1999. 2-7.
- Our decision. West, M. May 1998. 8-9.
- Our experience with auditory neuropathy: How professionals and parents can help each other. Solomon, N. July 2002. 30-32.
- Outer hair cells, cochlear mechanical amplification, otoacoustic emissions, and the cochlear microphonic. Withnell, R. H., & Lilly, D. J. July 2002. 11-14.
- Outreach audiology. Seitz, A. June 1994. 6-8.
- Overview of the evolution of auditory neuropathy—Its diagnosis and management. Rose, K., Hood, L. J., & Berlin, C. I. July 2002. 3-11.
- An overview of the occupational hearing conservation programs: The audiologist's role, audiologic/medical referrals, and expectations concerning referrals. Cook, G. R. April 2004. 23-26
- Owning a hearing loss: Arming students with information and support. Seaton, J. B. October 2002. 43-46.
- Pediatric cochlear implant update and the value of a team approach. Roesch, K. October 2002. 24-28.
- Physician response to childhood hearing impairment. VOICE for Hearing Impaired Children. May 1993. 2-4.
- The power of perception: Two views of deafness. Hutchison, J., Ernst, M., & Sloan, M. January 1995. 5-6.
- Promoting clinical excellence: When the QI process doesn't go your way. Eiten, L. R. September 1999. 21-23.
- Providing counseling and instructions to parents of infants and children with hearing loss: A consideration of need. Pratt, S. R. August 2000. 2-10.
- QI corner. Eiten, L. R. September 1999. 21.
- Recent developments in FM-system technology for classroom use. Lewis, D. E. June 1994. 2-6.
- Recommended professional practices for educational audiology. Ad hoc committee on recommended practices for educational audiology, Educational Audiology Association. October 1998. 1-4.
- Remembering Mike Wynne. Pimentel, V. April 2004. 3.
- Rethinking global behavioral tests of central auditory processing. Jerger, S. April 1997. 3-6.
- Selecting and implementing FM solutions. Henry, P., & Jones, C. April 2004. 16-18.
- The sensory aids study at Central Institute for the Deaf. Geers, A. E., & Moog, M. S. August 1995. 7-8.
- Sound-field and personal FM: Technologies to assist children with normal hearing in the classroom. Kreisman, B. M., Crandell, C. C., & Smaldino, J. J. May 2003. 17-20.

- Soundfield FM amplification: Advantages and potential limitations. Crandell, C. C. August 1997. 3-9.
- Still forgotten after all these years? Marttila, J. October 2002. 41-42.
- Suggested protocol for audiological and hearing aid evaluation. Auditory Verbal International. November 1993. 9-10.
- Summary report from the executive board subcommittee on issues in clinical supervision. Ulrich, S. R. December 1996. 7-9.
- Teens, hearing loss, and self-acceptance: We've got to talk about it! English, K. October 2004. 2-4.
- Therapeutic issues and adolescent cochlear implant recipients. Chute, P.M., & Buhler, H.C. October 2004. 16-20.
- Three years experience with auditory integration training. Lucker, J. R., Geffner, D., & Gordon, A. March 1996. 4-6.
- Transgenic mutations affecting the inner ear. Mullen, L. M., & Ryan, A. F. July 2001. 7-16.
- Use of pediatric outcome measures in a university audiology training program. Paxton, M. W., & Clark-Lewis, S. July 2003. 6-8.
- Viewpoint on central auditory processing disorders. Allen, R. October 2001. 3-5.
- Web links related to hearing conservation. April 2004. 29-30.
- Welcoming and celebrating new voices in audiology and speech-language pathology: A critical look at university programs and the treatment of culturally and linguistically diverse students. Pimentel, V. May 2003. 3-5.
- What is branchial oto renal (BOR) syndrome? National Research Register for Hereditary Hearing Loss. June 1994. 9.
- When listening carefully is not enough: 12 steps to approaching speech language pathology services for the child who is hard-of-hearing. Anderson, K. L., & Crowley, D. J. October 2002. 33-36.
- Why a cochlear implant? Why not? Grugan, P. May 1998. 7-8.
- Why a cochlear implant? ... Why not? Grugan, P. May 1998. 7-8.
- Working with children who have cochlear implants. Erler, S. F. October 2002. 19-24.
- Working with parents of school-aged children: Staying in step while keeping a step ahead. English, K. August 2000. 17-20.
-