

Figure 2. Results from a recent study in which children were tested on a sound localization task with a multi-loudspeaker array. Each data point represents the RMS error obtained from one child; children with normal hearing (NH) are in panel A and bilaterally implanted children are in panel B (BICI group). The BICI group were tested with both CIs activated. Data adapted from Grieco-Calub & Litovsky (2010).