

Don't Close the Door to Recovery

Open it instead by passing legislation to extend the therapy cap exceptions process.

Unless Congress acts in the next few days, millions of Medicare beneficiaries — those who need care the most — will have arbitrary dollar limits imposed on their rehabilitation services as of January 1, 2007. Protect your constituents by passing legislation to extend the therapy cap exceptions process.

Sponsoring Organizations

- | | |
|---|---|
| American Health Care Association | American Medical Rehabilitation Providers Association |
| American Academy of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation | American Nurses Association |
| American Heart Association / American Stroke Association | The Arc of the United States |
| American Occupational Therapy Association | Arthritis Foundation |
| American Physical Therapy Association | Brain Injury Association of America |
| American Speech-Language-Hearing Association | National Association of Directors of Nursing Administration/LTC, Inc. |
| Easter Seals | National Osteoporosis Foundation |
| Military Officers Association of America | Parkinson's Action Network |
| National Association for the Support of Long Term Care | United Cerebral Palsy |
| National Association of Rehabilitation Providers and Agencies | |

For more information, contact any of the above sponsors.