

Mini Guide: Dressing

Common Opportunities in This Routine

- Making choices
- Labeling clothes
- Naming body parts

Strategy Ideas

- Model simple phrases, adding pauses (e.g., “Arms . . . up!”).
- Describe what you’re doing while helping your child get dressed.

Tips for Making It Fun

- Make it a game (e.g., “Where’s your arm?”).
- Sing songs while getting dressed.

What To Watch For

- Is your child gesturing that they want to help?
- Are they attempting to name items of clothing with you?
- Are you and your child sharing attention with each other during this routine?
