

State Teacher Requirements Licensing Trends - Audiology

State/Trends	States that Allow(A) /Require (R) State Licensure for School-Based Audiologists	States have no guidance (state licensure required)	States that Accept State Licensure with Additional Requirements for School-Based Audiologist	States that Require a Minimum of a Master's Degree to Obtain Teaching Certificate/License for School-Based Audiologist	States that Require a Minimum of a Doctoral Degree to Obtain Teaching Certificate/License for School-Based Audiologist	States that Allow(A) /Require (R) ASHA Certification for School-Based Audiologist	Continuing Education Requirements (hours/years)
Alabama		x					N/A
Alaska				X			6 semester hours or 9 quarter hours every 5 years
Arizona		x					N/A
Arkansas		x					N/A
California	A			X			150 clock hours every 5 years
Colorado				X			6 semester hours or 90 clock hours every 5 years
Connecticut			R				20 hours every 2 years
Delaware	R						30 CE hours per biennial renewal cycle; dual license must complete 15 CE in each specialty area per two-year license
DC				X		A	6 semester hours or 90 contact hours every 4 years
Florida							N/A
Georgia	A			x		A	Job embedded professional learning for employed professionals. For not employed professionals- visit licensure website.
Hawaii	R						N/A
Idaho				X			6 semester hours every 5 years
Illinois		x					N/A
Indiana	R						Indiana Professional Licensing Agency license; or 6 semester hours completed at an accredited Indiana institution; or professional growth plan
Iowa			A	X			4 credits every 5 years and mandatory reporter training for child dependent adult abuse.
Kansas	R						20 hours every 2 years
Kentucky							N/A
Louisiana			R	X			10 hours every year
Maine		x					N/A
Maryland	R					A	30 CE hours every 2 years
Massachusetts	R						20 CE hours every 2 years
Michigan	R						20 CE hours every 2 years
Minnesota		x					N/A
Mississippi				X			3 semester hours or 5 CE hours every 5 years
Missouri		x					N/A
Montana	R						40 hours every odd numbered year
Nebraska				X			Individuals without one year of service in the past five years must complete six semester credit hours. All others may renew their certificate upon verification of experience.

State Teacher Requirements Licensing Trends - Audiology

State/Trends	States that Allow(A) /Require (R) State Licensure for School-Based Audiologists	States have no guidance (state licensure required)	States that Accept State Licensure with Additional Requirements for School-Based Audiologist	States that Require a Minimum of a Master's Degree to Obtain Teaching Certificate/License for School-Based Audiologist	States that Require a Minimum of a Doctoral Degree to Obtain Teaching Certificate/License for School-Based Audiologist	States that Allow(A) /Require (R) ASHA Certification for School-Based Audiologist	Continuing Education Requirements (hours/years)
Nevada				X		A	Six semester hours of university or in-service credits or 15 hours of pre-approved conferences
New Hampshire	A						N/A
New Jersey		x					N/A
New Mexico	R					A	20 hours every 2 years
New York			A				N/A
North Carolina	A			X		A	7.5 units of renewal credit every five years.
North Dakota	A			X			4 semester hours every 5 years
Ohio			R	X			20 clock hours every 2 years
Oklahoma		x					N/A
Oregon		x					N/A
Pennsylvania		x					N/A
Rhode Island		x					N/A
South Carolina		x					N/A
South Dakota		x					N/A
Tennessee				X			Five years experience during ten year validity period; Less than five years experience during ten year validity period must earn 90 renewal points
Texas	R					A	20 clock hours every 2 years
Utah		x					100 points every 5 years
Vermont	R						N/A
Virginia							N/A
Washington				X		R	150 clock hours of approved in-service or 15 quarter hours of college coursework (or a combination of both) every five years
West Virginia		x					N/A
Wisconsin				X			Six semester credits or a Professional Development Plan are required every five years
Wyoming					X		N/A
TOTAL	16	16	5	17	1	8	